Party Package Group Reservation Policies

Scheduling: Group reservation times will be considered on a case-by-case basis by our Tasting Room or Club and Customer Service Manager. Reservations are encouraged to be booked 1 month out to event date. Any time after that we cannot always guarantee availability. Group must conform to the reservation time slots available. There will be no altering of reservation time to accommodate groups.

Reservation Timing: We will start the group when all guests have arrived and are seated. If the group is more than 10 minutes late, your reservation may be forfeited to another guest and will not be refunded. You can always transfer your reservation.

If you are late to your tasting and decide that you would still like to proceed, you will still be required to complete the tasting in the original allotted time frame. If that is not possible, no refund will be issued, and money will not be put toward an in-store purchase.

Parking: Parking is limited at all locations and all members of the group are encouraged to plan on arriving 20 minutes ahead of schedule. The Tasting Room will do their best to seat you earlier or on time for your reservation.

Reservation Length: When booking a reservation, you agree to the start and end time allocated. Each location runs off a back-to-back reservation system and has a different length of allotted time per location. You cannot pay any additional money to extend group time, regardless of party size or if running late.

Payment: Your reservation is not confirmed until full payment has been made at the time of booking. Payments for the reservation cannot be split or made the day of.

A la carte items can be added the day of and can be paid for by individuals at the tasting.

Outside food and Beverage: No outside food and beverage is permitted in Adirondack Winery Tasting Rooms. We offer an assortment of sodas and food items that can be purchased at the tasting. Your Party Package comes with our ADK Happy Snacker plats(s) for your group.

Refund Policy: Adirondack Winery's Pre-Sold Tasting Experiences are non-refundable. If you need to modify your reservation, please contact us at 518-668-9463 at least 24 hours before your reservation time. We will attempt to schedule another time slot for your reservation. If we are not able to accommodate you with the times available your fees WILL NOT be refunded. If you are more than 10 mins late to your reservation, your reservation may be forfeited to another guest and will not be refunded. You can always transfer your reservation to another guest.

LAKE GEORGE: Please understand that Adirondack Winery's Tasting Room in Lake George is licensed New York State Satellite Retail Locations; therefore, we are only licensed to pour tastings of our wines and sell bottles for off-premises consumption. We do not serve wine by the glass or other traditional "wine bar" amenities at this location.

- Our Lake George Tasting Room DOES NOT include a restroom.
- The Lake George location Party Package reservations do not have a "private space". A section of our bar will be reserved for your group. The space is open to the public and your guests will be served alongside our regular customers. Space may be limited for your party based on how many customers we have in the space at any time.

You will have 1 hour for your party package.

QUEENSBURY: Groups of 5 to 10 people booked as a Party Package in the new Queensbury Tasting Room will be seated at our Communal table in the Tasting Room. This table has a max of 10 people. Extra chairs will not be added. Parties at the communal table have a max of 2 hours per reservation. Parties 5 or less do have the option to be seated at our Tasting Bar however they will only have a 1-hour time slot for their reservation. Reservations will not be made for our full bar, no exceptions.

ID / Non-Tasting Guests: Guests must present a valid photo ID (United States Driver's License or DMV issued Non-Driver ID, Passport, or Military ID) showing age 21+ to taste. Space is only reserved for members of the group participating in the tasting.

- If guests are under 21 and are seen handling wine, they may be asked to leave the premises and purchases may be denied, avoiding the appearance of breaking State and Federal laws.

Behavior: Adirondack Winery's Tasting Room is not a bar. We ask that you please drink responsibly, before, during and after your tasting and that safe driving is ensured. Our Tasting Room staff may refuse service to a member of your party if they are intoxicated or acting irresponsibly. We may request that member(s) of your group be removed from the Tasting Room. All members are expected to be respectful of other guests and the staff. Adirondack Winery associates can ask group guests to act in a respectable manner if not doing so. No refunds will be issued if any members of your group are required to leave due to lack of ID, intoxication, or unacceptable behavior.
